“ Mr. Broeren always had a smile and wonderful sense of humor. He had a loving wife in Dottie and the girls Leslee, Jeanne, Barb and their families. He will be watching over you all now with Lynne at his side. Love and prayers for all of you.

“ Kindest wishes to the Broeren family. Mr. Broeren's daughter, Leslee, is my decades-long friend and her love for him speaks volumes about what a good man he was. Your memories will comfort you.

“ Deepest sympathy to you Dorothy and the rest of the family..moving away so many years ago we missed knowing our aunts and uncles like we would have liked to. “ Sorry to hear of the passing of one of Minocqua's great gentlemen. Known as Jim, most people probably didn't know his first name was Lloyd. I found out many years ago when I bought a parcel of land from him and Dottie -- and Lloyd was the name on the title! A great friend to our family for many decades, my thoughts are with his family.

“ Where does one start...Jim was the Dad to my very first and lifelong friend, Leslee. He was a gentle and kind man but he had to be raising four daughters. Heaven has gained a wonderful angel. Carry on Jim!
