“ Grandpa,
Your love for life was just truly amazing. You made family your number one priority. I am so thankful for the time we shared. Growing up in the Northwoods gave me the opportunity to spend a lot of time with you. Thanks for always listening to me and showing me what life and love was all about. I get married in 19 days...when I talked to you on my birthday 3 weeks ago you said how much you wished you could be there. I know you will be shining down and smiling. Thank you for showing me what a true marriage is supposed to be. Your love for grandma makes me smile and I always will remember what it takes to make a marriage work. I love you today, tomorrow, and always grandpa.
Love always,
Your granddaughter Shawna

“ Dear Nancy and family, I was sad to hear of Lowell's passing and wanted to send my best to you. I always looked forward to my visits with Lowell both in the office and at Lake Placid Inn over the years. As his grandson Josh said in his post "Always knew how to make us smile." Lowell will be missed but never forgotten.
Best wishes, Kirby Redman

“ You will be missed dearly grandpa. I remember all the times you and I sat up watching the news and talking about the world and life, we ALWAYS had the best conversations. You always had the best stories, I'm still laughing to this day about the Frankenstein hair from your one doctors visit. Always knew how to make us all smile. Love you and rest easy grandpa, until we meet again. -your grandson Josh
