“ I first met Mary Ann and Emil in the mid 50's while working at the Tower Service Station only two miles from their home. They were beautiful people and Mary Ann remained that way for the rest of her life. I especially remember going on a draft horse sleigh ride with Emil and my family when it was minus 25 degrees. The big bonfire and hot chocolate kept us warm. She regularly attended the Community Presbyterian Church in LDF including just last Sunday. We'll miss your smile and wonderful greeting. Rest in peace. Ralph Kerler LDF

“ Your Mom was LOVED and respected by her community, friends and family. We will truly miss her. She was such an Angel on Earth. She stopped by at the Hrabik family home this fall, just because there were so many cars. What a nice visit we had. We even called her while we were home over New Years weekend, but no answer. We were thinking of her. She was such a good friend to mom(Pat Hrabik) and to all of us. We will love her always and miss her and know that she is now with Emil, Pat and Dean basking in God's glory. Our deepest sympathy to all of you in the loss of your dear and precious mother. Sending love and hugs. Terri Hrabik Sterzen and family

“ I met MaryAnn through my husband, George Rehfeld. She called him German George and every Thanksgiving and Christmas for the many years of his bachelorhood he found his way to her table from his apartment in Chicago. Emil built his two cottages on Fence Lake. I came into the picture in the middle 70's and George could hardly wait to introduce me to his "soul sister". Sitting at her kitchen table listening to the two of them talk about her family and friends filled my mind with wonderful stories that for me became my introduction to the "North Country". There was the time she stuffed the intestines of a cow that attempted to jump over a manger and got stuck, no vet was available, so MaryAnn cleaned the wound, replacing the intestines and sewed the animal up. It survived. Then when Buffy was born and the house was filled with workman, MaryAnn asked Emil to build her a cottage where she could nurse in private...he did. Then there were the playboy magazines that found there way into the tree house in the woods...MaryAnn knew. The sick bunny wrapped in an electric blanket behind the sofa...and on and on..the two stoves,washers, and the dormitory that Emil made for "the boys". Her home and heart were always open. I am fortunate to have shared some moments with this kind woman.

Buffy became our 1st child's Godmother and Emil, MaryAnn and Buffy drove to our home in Appleton for the Christening...MaryAnn raided her pantry and furnished our Christening banquet with wonderful home canned pickles and relishes...for our 2nd child's birth she made a christening dress and blanket for George 11, he carried the blanket with him for 4 year, sucking on the lacy border until it was almost all gone. He left it at the airport in St. Louis,MO. and I had to make another one to replace it.

Good by dear friend, you have been a part of my active memory for a long long time. I will miss you. Rest in peace and God bless you.

“ Dearest Miller children,
I was so sorry to hear about your Mom's passing. Although we didn't see much of each other in these past years, I will always cherish the many hours at the kitchen table with her. She was a friend and confidant.

“ A more beautiful, strong, loving Soul you will never meet. Mary Ann was like a second mother to me (and many others) growing up. She always had words of wisdom, love, practicality and occasionally the WTH were you thinking. Her heart took everything and everybody in. She lived life to the max and she cooked/baked better than most chefs. She will be sorely missed by everyone who met her and that was a very large audience. I cherish and smile at all the "Miller Memories" and send hugs and prayers to Bob, Bill, Buffy, Larry and Jerry during this difficult time. We got this Mary Ann, go hug Emil and my Mom too.
