“ As one of Al's caregivers, I had the pleasure of getting to know him for a few months. In that short time, I cannot count how often we made each other laugh. Even on "off days," Al was able to make me smile. I know he loved his wife dearly, as his face would light up when I mentioned her. Al was one who made me think, as a caregiver, "why can't they all be more like him?" Regardless of the situation, he was always ready with some quip that could make light of anything. His handshake affirmed he was cool but serious. Al will be dearly missed by all who got to know him at all. My heart and prayers go out to his wife, children, and extended family. May Al's soul rest peacefully and his memory live on for generations to come!
