

Avis G Karlmann

September 6, 2017

Wednesday evening, September 6, 2017, Avis Karlmann passed peacefully at Seasons of Life Hospice House in Woodruff, Wisconsin. She was born Nov. 3, 1926 in Abrams, Wisconsin, the daughter of Emma and Albert Falk. Avis was the office manager at Lakeland Medical Center for the majority of her working career. Her life touched so many, and we are all better for having known her. She is gone, but her impact on our lives will go on forever.

Avis is survived by her two sons, Owen William Karlmann and Larry (Jan) Karlmann; five grandchildren, Paul (Becky) Karlmann, Heather (Justin) Clark, Jeffrey (Heather) Scott, Brian (Michelle) Scott and Rob (Erica) Scott; and eleven great grandchildren, Ian, Maxwell and Sam Karlmann; McKenna and Jackson Clark, Josie, Wyatt and Evan Scott, Olivia Scott, and Gabe and Nolan Scott; two sisters, Sadie Garlow and Carol Lindner.

She was preceded in death by her husband Owen Karlmann, her two sisters, Lorraine Falk and Ruth Weigel; one brother, Wilbur Falk and her daughter in law Agneta Karlmann Avis requested to have only a graveside service to be held at the Minocqua Memorial Cemetery. The service will take place on Monday, Sept. 11, 2017 at 11:30 A.M.

There will be a luncheon at the home of Jan and Larry Karlmann, immediately following the service.

We were very blessed that our loving mother, grandmother and sister was able to spend the last weeks of her life in the kind and caring hands of the staff at Seasons of Life Hospice House. Memorials may be directed to HYF-Seasons of Life Hospice House PO Box 470 Woodruff, WI 54568.

“ So very sorry to all the Karlmann's & extended families & friends. Many many years ago we met Avis & Owen and they had us laughing from the start. Great people, but they raised greater kids. Thanks for giving us Larry & Bill & families. We will miss you, Avis. Now you and Owen can continue in eternity. Love & God Bless. Tim & Pam C
