

Betty Schneidmiller

October 8, 2020

Betty L. Schneidmiller, 92, passed away peacefully in her Northern Wisconsin home in Minocqua on October 8, 2020. Her dear friend was at her side as she grew her wings and was raised up to heaven.

Betty was born June 23, 1928 in Cheyenne Wyoming to Peter and Marie Schneidmiller and was the youngest of seven children. Early years were not easy but she worked hard and put herself through college to become a elementary school teacher. She taught in the states of Washington and California but spent most of her years in the New Berlin School system, Wisconsin.

Her life was blessed with many dear friends and her surrogate family the Erikson's who she spent many summers with in Minocqua Wisconsin and winters in Spring Hill Florida.

She is survived by her dearest friend Delma Erikson along with many nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors.

A private memorial will be held in Sturgeon Bay Wisconsin at a later date. In lieu of flowers memorials can be made to Dr Kate Home Health and Hospice in Minocqua and Community Presbyterian Church in Lac Du Flambeau.

“ I just learned of Betty’s passing and Delma, my heart and prayers are with you. I’ll always treasure our lunches at Marina Jacks here in Sarasota. I’m so thankful for the amazing friendship that both you and Betty had with my mom. Looking forward to seeing you this summer!

Hugs and love,
Jennifer

“ We're so sad to learn of Betty's death! She was a kind, smart, and funny person, always having a twinkle in her eye! Delma, we're sending you hugs and love and prayers as you say goodbye to your friend. You two were so much fun together, and you took such good care of her when she needed it. I'm sure you'll miss her so much!

Love,

“ In all the years I’ve known Betty she never had a bad word to say about anyone. She was always so happy and smiled all the time. Her famous words were I don’t know. She loved to sing and was a blessing to be around. Will miss her terribly but know she’s in a much better place.
