“ *I worked with Brian for many years at Lincoln Hills School. He was a very great friend during his time there and I'm very sad that we lost touch over the past years. We shared many shifts in all of the different living units Brian was always soft-spoken, genuine when talking about life lessons, friendship and had a unique sense of humor to say the least. I always enjoyed the time that we work together and whenever we had a chance meeting outside of work it always turned into a very long gab session which people found hard to believe because he always appeared to be a man of few words.
Brian had a lot of knowledge he shared over the years with me and some of his co-workers and if he liked you there was never a doubt in your mind. Sending sincere sympathy to his family as I know he will truly be missed by many. God Bless.*
