“ I worked and knew Bryan as a personal friend. My thoughts and prayers are with him that he finally found the peace he had been searching for. He will be missed, but will forever be in my heart.

“ We had known Bryan for many years. So enjoyed seeing and visiting with him at the Marshfield Clinic.....and also really missed him when he was no longer there to greet us.

We weren't aware Bryan was ill and am sorry for that. He was a special friend and we know that he is in heaven smiling down on us in his gentle way.

I'm sure that Bryan's relatives and closest friends will miss him most. Please know that our hearts are with you in your sorrow.

“ I am so sorry to hear this. Bryan was a very special friend and coworker. We shared many happy and sad times together. I am very blessed to have had him as a friend. I too have several pieces of his stained glass and they will always be a treasure to me. Heaven is richer to have him there.

“ I, also did not know he was ill and am saddened to hear of his passing. I worked with Bryan @ Marshfield Clinic and yes he was a very kind and gentle man. He always had a smile on his face. He should have opened a bakery as anything he baked was wonderful. No one made almond caramel corn like Bryan did. I think when his mom was alive she would help him package up the corn to sell to all of us vultures. If anyone has that recipe I would love to have it.

“ Bryan was such a kind and gentle man. I worked with him for several years at Dr. Kate Home Health. He was also a wonderful baker, I still have one of his recipes. I wish I would have known he was ill--I am so sad to hear of his passing. I am sure he will enjoy days of sunshine in heaven.

Bryan was such a great kind and caring man. I worked with him at Dr. Kate Home Health and still have some of the recipes he shared. Also, I feel very lucky as he did marvelous stain class which he was so kind and shared with me and I will treasure them forever. Have missed him at Marshfield Clinic as a greeter. I am positive he is much happier now that he is in heaven with other loved ones and at peace.
