

Camille T. Smigaj

August 11, 1932 - December 2, 2023

Camille T. Smigaj, age 91, of Lac du Flambeau, entered into Eternal Life on December 2, 2023 at home surrounded by her loving family. Camille was born in Milwaukee on August 11, 1932.

She was employed with Lakeland Medical Associates/Marshfield Clinic for 30 years. Camille enjoyed her retirement. She kept busy volunteering at church and she loved being involved with her grandchildren.

Camille is survived by her husband of 58 years, John; children, Holly (Daniel) Geiger of Lake Tomahawk and Craig (Stacey) Smigaj of Carpentersville, IL; grandchildren, Danielle, Curtis, Summer and Madison.

She has expressed her desire to have no formal public funeral. The family will have a private service at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to the Salvation Army or Lakeland Retirement Foundation/Generations, PO Box 1815, Woodruff, 54568.

“ I remember playing Old Maid and War as my first games with Grandmas. Then we moved on to 99, “Oh Heck”, and Royal Rummy. I always loved playing games over there. I’d also hope that I would find a frog in the long grass beside their house. Many times I would find one. And sometimes I’d bring it inside to show everybody. The frogs never got to stay long inside the house.
