

Carol Galloway

April 17, 1920 - April 24, 2010

Carol Galloway, 90, started her journey to eternal life on April 24, 2010 in Minocqua, WI. She was born April 17, 1920 in Chicago, IL to the late Enoch and Emma Johnson. Carol spent her retirement years in Boulder Junction and later in Woodruff at One Penny Place. She was a devoted loving wife, a cherished mother, an adored grandmother and great grandmother, a loving sister and sister in law, and a caring aunt and an inspiration to many. Carol enjoyed dancing, sewing, painting and being a housewife and had a passion for making candy. She prided herself in making peanut brittle but she was excellent at creating several other candies as well which she shared with the community and her family. Carol was very active in many Boulder Junction community organizations.

Carol was preceded in death by her husband Phillip of 56 years; brothers Morris Johnson, Robert Johnson and sister Jeanette Anderson.

Carol is survived by her children Jim Galloway, Jayne Terrell, Betty Verkler and Robert Galloway; grandchildren Tim Galloway, Tracy Galloway, Robin Harris, Marcy Powell, Wendy Collins, Myles Galloway, Bauer Galloway, Shanda Hunt, and Brandi Wright; great grandchildren Morgan Harris, Tyler and Emma Powell and Jordan, Jake and Jayla Coleman; sister Juliet Berntsen and brother Richard Johnson.

A memorial to celebrate her life will be held at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Boulder Junction on June 12, 2010 at 10:00 AM.

“ I have not seen Carol for years but I think of her every year at Christmas when I hang the beautiful hand painted eggs she gave my boys. My deepest sympathy to the family. Carol was a very sweet lady and I was glad to know her.

“ To Jim, Jayne, Betty and Robert, I am so sorry for your loss. I got to talk with Aunt Carol on the phone a few years ago and we both enjoyed our talk. I always remember her as a caring person. We had a fun time reminiscing and talking about Aunt Jessie and her knowing Al Capone. I will miss her.

“ Jim, Jayne, Betty and Rob, I just found out about your mom's passing. I want you all to know that I am very sorry for your loss. Your mom was a sweetheart of a person. I was able to talk with her on the phone several times in the last couple of years. I always enjoyed our conversations. I will miss her. My thoughts are with you.
