

Carol Skorey

November 12, 1953 - November 26, 2011

Carol R Skorey, Age 58, died Saturday, November 26th in her St. Germain home.

She was raised in Chicago, IL where she met and married (38 years) the "Love of her Life" Jon Skorey. Together they relocated to St. Germain to raise their two sons.

She is survived by her parents, Evelyn and Werner Heesch; Husband Jon Skorey; Two Sons, Jason (Marusha) and Eric (Tiffany); and the joy of her life, Granddaughter Ryleigh.

Blondie enjoyed living between her two homes of Pompano Beach, FL and St. Germain, WI. Her heart was in the Northwoods where she loved bass fishing and spending time with her family and friends.

She was a very talented Watercolor Artist. She escaped her pains and stress by painting scenes of the Northwoods, Animals, and portraits of her Granddaughter.

Blondie lived life to the fullest and everyday with a smile. She had a very strong and bright Soul.

She will be greatly missed by her Family & Friends.

“ Although we only had a short time to spend with Carol. We felt like we knew her well through her dear friend Martha (Rob's mom). She always spoke well of her and Jon. The time we had in St. Maarten with Jon and Carol, is now even more special to us. We got to see her and enjoy such a wonderful time and place with her. I keep thinking of that beautiful picture she was painting and how impressed I was with her talent. She did it with such ease. How she was so excited to jump into the swimming pool after all those years. That was a great moment. We're so glad to capture it with a photo. We loved the video of all of you clinging to the fence at Majo Beach waiting for those planes to take off. She was full of life and had a good spirit. There was only one time that we saw her weak during the entire trip. She rested, then brushed it off and went on with her day. She was indeed a strong woman. Sending Jon and her family our love and condolences. We are am happy to have known her. May you have peace in your heart. Sincerely, Rob and Ian Richardson, Roxanne and Ally Roccamo

“ Jon, Jason, and Eric, I am so sorry for your loss. Carol will always be in my mind and in my heart as the upbeat wonderful person she was so well known for. The time I shared with her a Black Bear was very special to me. She taught me so much about life and love. I will never forget her and her favorite saying at the time "I'm a good driver". I will keep you in my prayers.

“ I remember Carol through the heart of Susie. Sue was a good judge of people and she liked Blondie. They shared a short time together in Florida and those times were sweet. Remember all those soccer games with the kids in St. Germain? Memories become the balm to our soul and Jon you have been blessed with so many wonderful memories.

“ I am so very saddened to learn that Blondie is no longer with us in this world. I met Blondie at Dillman's and I was always so happy to find myself in a class with her, knowing we could share time together. She just lit up the room. I loved hearing about her granddaughter. Her paintings were beautiful and so cheerful and full of life, her true spirit showed through in them.

“ We are in shock to hear of Carol's passing. Carol and I were friends when she was very young. Our parents would get-together and play cards while we played. I will never forget those times. She was a very sweet girl. My heartfelt sympathy to the entire family. - Bonnie and Leona
