

Carolyn E. Hendry

September 26, 1930 - March 11, 2025

Carolyn Edythe (Haberstroh) Hendry passed away peacefully on March 11, 2025. Her love, laughter and kindness will be so missed. Carolyn was born in Chicago, Illinois. She graduated from Senn High School and Loyola University, St. Francis School of Nursing, and became a registered nurse. She married Lloyd R. Hendry Jr. on December 13, 1952.

Carolyn's life was defined by her family, her friendships, and her faith. She had a generous heart and will always be remembered for the love and humor she shared. She and Lloyd spent many happy years together in Chicago, Louisville and Houston. After raising her three children, she went back to nursing in Louisville and Houston, notably becoming the nursing manager of the Bellaire Psychiatric Hospital in Bellaire, Texas. Upon Lloyd's passing in 1988 and her retirement, Carolyn moved up to the beautiful Northwoods of Wisconsin and North Two Lake. There, she spent over twenty-five years living life—making people laugh with her cousin Jeanne Heck, welcoming friends and family to the North Two Lake house, being an active member of the Church of the Pines Methodist church in Minocqua, WI, and enjoying all the things that God blessed her with. Carolyn will always be remembered for her smile, quick wit and genial spirit!!!

Answorth, Leah Hendry, Lauren Sandberg, Matthew Sandberg and wife Taylor (White), Lloyd Hendry, Shea Hendry, and Griffin Hendry; great grandchildren Elizabeth Sandberg and Jordan Sandberg; and many nieces and nephews. “ I shared so many precious and delightful times with Carolyn attending the Performing Arts, events at our churches, donating our help at the Campanile Center, taking a Sunday ride on my golf cart, or, visiting on her deck. She always tooted her car horn as she passed my house at least once a day. I think of her often and she remains close in my heart. My deepest sympathy to her dear family.
