

Charlotte Schaub

November 2, 1921 - June 27, 2012

Charlotte Schaub, 90, died at Howard Young Medical Center in Woodruff, Wednesday, June 27, 2012.

Born to George and Dorothy Glover in St. Louis, Mo., in 1921, she was raised in that city until age 20 when she moved to Chicago.

It was here she met Ed Schaub Sr. and they married in 1946, two weeks following his discharge from the Army after World War II.

During the war she had worked on the Sure Fire Torpedo in the metalurgical lab at Hot Point. At that time it was considered a secret weapon.

She and Ed lived in the Chicago suburbs for 25 years with Ed working as a pattern maker and general contractor.

After being introduced to the Northwoods by Bill and Ginny Ross, they made a permanent move to the area in 1965. Ed opened a construction business. and Charlotte worked in their office.

She was preceded in death by Ed Sr. who died in 1995.

She is survived by two children: Ed Jr. (Ellen) of Minocqua, and Michele Bruette of Woodruff, eight grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren; and one sister, Barbara (Tony) Napoli, of St. Louis.

She was a member of the La Sertomas Auxiliary in St. Louis; served as a volunteer at the Woodruff Senior Center for 13 years and a front desk volunteer at Howard Young Medical Center.

A memorial service will be on July 3, 2012 at 2 PM in the Bolger Funeral Home-WOODRUFF CHAPEL with a memorial gathering one hour prior the service on Tuesday.

Memorial are suggested to the Diabetes Assoc.

Tribute Wall

LF

“ I have fond memories of Aunt Charlotte and visiting her and Uncle Ed as a child. My grandmother, Mildred Fleck, was her sister. I am saddened by the loss to her family and hope that they can find comfort during the coming weeks.

Lisa Fleck - March 22, 2013 at 11:52 AM

CS

“ *Ellen & Ed,
Am so sorry for your loss my thoughts & prayers are with you and your family.*

Cecelia Stewart - March 22, 2013 at 11:52 AM