“ I have known "Charlie Brown" for 45 years. She was the kind of person I would like to be. Her heart was pure, she was a giving and loving soul, her kindness to people was unmeasurable.

After selling Aliotos Supper Club in Milwaukee, Charlotte ventured north with her mother. She opened and operated the Black Angus Supper Club in Minocqua, then she bought and sold Charlie Browns (now The Heart II) before retiring. Upon retiring, she became famous as the "much loved bartender" by all at The Little Brown Jug, Landmark, Gaslight, 70 West and Len's Den. She brought joy to her customers for over 55 years. Never a bad word uttered from her, always sharing hope and good feelings. I will miss her deeply and be ever grateful to her for all the love and support she gave to me throughout the years.
