

Clyde R. Bailey

August 5, 1928 - July 15, 2020

Clyde Bailey, age 91, died peacefully on 7/15/2020. Born: 8/5/1928 in Metropolis, Iowa. A much loved father and uncle. Preceded in death by his wife Shirley, his parents, and two brothers. Survived by his son, Doug, 4 nieces, and 6 nephews. He lived most of his life in Wisconsin's Northwoods. He worked as a YMCA director in Tulsa, Chicago, and Iowa and led trips into the wilderness. He owned and operated Wildcat Lodge in Boulder Junction for 24 years while also being a guidance counselor at LUHS. He then ran a photo store with his wife and son for many years. He taught us a lot and led a lot of kids through troubled times. There will be a private family memorial when it is safe from COVID. Any memorials can be directed to Dr. Kate Hospice.

Tribute Wall

“ Doug and family, mom and I just found out and send our deepest sympathies and prayers for the family.

*With Love
Linda Lou and Leslie Hogue*

Leslie Hogue - August 12, 2020 at 08:00 PM

“ Clyde will truly be missed. His smile that lit up his face, his sense of humor, knew a lot about so many things and shared his knowledge & expertise freely. I'll miss him. Doug, you and your family are in our prayers.

Kathy & Howard Delveaux

Howard & Kathy Delveaux - July 30, 2020 at 01:27 AM