“ I met Dave when I was a rookie and he was about to retire. He wanted me to teach him about computer programing, and I want to do police work. I stopped in Minocqua to visit him once. He taught me a lot about life which I did not appreciate to recently. He even taught me how to do a little police work the right way. It is telling how a person you know for a short time can make such an impact on ones life.

Rest in peace Dave.

P.S. I still have MY pocket dictionary, which he printed "stolen from D. Devine" in.

“ There is so much, I remember about you Uncle Dave. You were a true inspiration to me, even though the miles kept us apart. Whenever I was home in Wisconsin, you always made it over to see me and catch up. I think about you often and just learned of your passing. May almighty god have mercy on you, and please say "Hi" to Dad, Grandpa and Grandma for me. RIP. Johnny.
