“ *It is a shame that youthful friends loose track of each other over the years. It is with sadness that I offer my sincere condolences to the family of the guy we knew as Henry C. Wong. The guy with the copper chev and the cool fringed leather jacket. We crammed a lifetime of memories into a few short years. I haven't seen David for a lot of years, but he is still recognizable as a high school bud and the college roommate that shared many a beer over quiet conversation. Ask Max to play the violin one more time. My sympathy to Dave's family.
