“ A piece of my heart will forever be missing. Fortunately, the love for my mother and the love she showed to every one of us, helped me grow a big heart. Mom, I'll love you forever, think about you daily, and look forward to the times we will spend together in paradise. Until then, I'll miss you more than you ever could know.
Your loving son, Frank.

“ To the family that has lost a loved one. Words cannot define how wonderful Deb was and the lives that she touched with genuine concern and kindness for all who knew her. She always concentrated on the good in all, put herself second and others first. She made you feel welcome and appreciated no matter what the situation was. She was kind, loyal, hard working, caring, family first and always genuine. She was a diamond in the rough and will be missed terribly. I will always treasure the many memories that I have of an incredible woman! All my thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ The sweetest soul you could ever have the pleasure of knowing. The amount of kindness, patience, and understanding she embodied will leave me striving to be more like her every day. My heart hurts that she was taken from us so unexpectedly, but I will cherish all the memories and years we shared together. From day one she has always been right by my side encouraging and loving me every step of the way. She will leave a big hole in my life and there won't be a day that goes by where I don't think of her. My Aunt. My second Mom. My best friend. Love, love, love YOU!
