Delores Elaine Unertl born Feb 28, 1930

Delores E Sconzert died March 16, 2012

Thank you for coming to celebrate my mother's wonderful life.

She was born a daughter, a granddaughter, a niece, a cousin , and a sister.
She would become a friend, a best friend, a girlfriend, a wife, a mother, an aunt, a grandmother, a widow and eventually a great grandmother.

Preceded in death by her parents, a sister, and a brother. The deepest grief of burying three sons. Prematurely widowed by the sudden loss of the love of her life .

Delores..... of the sorrows.

But so much joy she spread to so many. An open home and a n open heart.
Devoted to family.

One mother and one father.

Three brothers and four sisters.

One husband FOREVER. In sickness and health. In sorrow and joy. In body and soul.

Five sons and a daughter.

Seven grandsons and six granddaughters.

Six Greatgrandsons and five greatgranddaughters.

Nieces and nephews more than fingers and toes.

Cousins in every direction the wind blows.

Friends afar and friends so near.

Friends to share sorrow and friends to share cheer.

Her life was rich in so many textures.

Born in Dancy Wisconsin, then to Schofield, then to Wausau. Denver Colorado to Springfield Massachusetts to Springfield Illinois. Rapid City South Dakota to Blytheville Arkansas to Warner Robins Georgia. Isabella Puerto Rico to Ramey Puerto Rico. Wichita Falls Texas to Fort Worth Texas. Back to Wausau Wisconsin then to Arbor Vita.

82 years and 2 weeks

A devoted enthusiastic member of the Catholic church.
Catholic Mother of the year 1964.

Volunteering throughout her life.

Cub scouts, baseball, PTA, glee club, swim team, at the church, at the hospital (35 years at Howard Young Medical Center)

She loved to dance. She loved to sing. She loved to fish with Bill. She loved the pleasure of the view from her porch on the lake.

She was a madcap of the redhats with so much enthusiasm.

LeeAnn wrote "your ability to handle each challenge with grace, your unremitting kindness to everyone and your wonderful sense of humor"

Another friend told me " she stood up for me when others were telling lies"

She liked owls and loons.

She loved every baby ever presented to her.

She would not tolerate hypocrisy.

But she believed in second chances and redemption.

I have seen her pick wild berries in the mountains of Colorado, at the roadside in rural Wisconsin, and in snake infested Louisiana.

She had a tremendous capacity to love.

She bonded deeply.

Her essence added dimension to so many lives.

Ron said " I remember the first time I came to your house. Your mother said " A friend of my son is always welcome in my home" and that's the way it's always been"

One of her physicians told me " She was truly special. She was one of those people who believe. She went out of her way to make the world a better place."

Do not grieve for Delores. She is full of joy.

She is now enjoying eternity.

“ *Dear Deb, Mitch, and Family,
You have been in our thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time.
Deb, know that although your heart seems broken now- the wonderful memories of your Mom will comfort, sustain, and bring you lasting peace.
Love to you-

“ I was very sorry to hear of Delores' passing. I knew Delorores from kidney dialysis in Woodruff where she and I spent many days chatting with each other as we waited in the waiting room. We enjoyed talking and comparing notes about our children and grandchildren. She was a very sweet and kind lady and will be missed by many, myself included. My sympathy goes out to all of her family members whom she loved so much.
