“ Becky, Don, and the entire family, I'm SO deeply sorry about Devin. My fondest memory of him was when the boys were about 7 or 8. I looked out my living room window and there's Devon and Marcus, in my car, heading right for the old viaduct guard rail. Marcus in the drivers seat and Devon in the back straining his neck to see where they'd been..just like Driving Miss Daisy. I don't think I've ever run faster in my life. They were just to darn cute and innocent looking to strangle. He truly was the cutest little stinker on the block. I pray that Father God wraps His arms around your family and heals each and every one of you.
