“ Diane will always be in my heart. I won't be able to garden without remembering how many times I would call her for advice. We have shared many fun years providing many fond memories. QVC won't be the same without her. LOVE you Diane with all my heart. Thank you for being my best friend and listening to me every time I called you.

“ To Larry and Family.....Don, myself and our family want to tell how sorry we are to hear about Diane passing....I did enjoy taking to Diane the last couple of months and also how Diane said how she would like a copy of the Family Tree....When I talked to Diane on her 68th Birthday her package with the Baillargeon-Schreiber family tree was delivered that day. Diane was looking forward to when she would feel better and be up to reading the history and generation information. I will also remember when Diane was born she had so much hair. We will not be at the funeral but Don, myself and our family send our love, prayers and thoughts for you and your family. I was glad for the time we got to visit on the phone and for the good memories of Diane. May God Be With You And You Family....love from Diane's sister Elaine, Don and Family

*Aunt Elaine that's such a beautiful memory... I've never seen a baby picture of my mom but I've often wondered who did I get all the hair from that I was born with which then my oldest daughter Samantha Jo was also so blessed with so now I know... Thank you and bless you for blessing me with that wonderful piece of history of my mom I shale treasure that always...
with all my love,

“ Thank you so much from the bottom of me heart to the doctors, nurses, and hospice for going out of their way in finding this long lost letter and finally being able to read it to my mom, she went shortly after so I will never know her thoughts but when you called to share with me that she remained alert for the entire time and then just went to sleep to only pass hours later I hope in my heart as you did also it was what she needed put her at rest.... Since im not welcomed at my own mothers funeral which breaks my heart id like to share with everyone my last chance of speaking to my mom even if it had to be through the the wonderful blessing of strangers... God bless them all...

Dear Mom,

I don't understand why you don't wish too see me or so much as hear my voice so I'm taking this chance too let you know how very thankful I am for you giving me life weather or not you meant for it or not. I so would have given the sun, moon and stars to see you myself and for you too hold me tight but since I'm unable to I'm writing you this letter in hopes it reaches you before you leave. I love you I love so much for giving me life and for so many things you've passed down to me that I will forever cherish and pass down for even more generations too come. I thank you so much for teaching me how to cook, gardening, canning, blessing me with your very creative side and the ability too stand on my own two feet. It was these things that even after your gone I will forever and ever be grateful. I look at Samantha Jo's baptismal gown the same gown that all my children your grandchildren wore for all their baptisms. I still remember the countless hours you put into it so it would be just perfect and ready for her big day, or the pink Easter Bunny costume you made for her and her very 1st Easter Basket we picked up together that dad did pictures of her in, as a matter of fact I still have that very Easter Basket which I've held onto for 24 years for Sammyjo to pass down too your great grandson Dawson, along with Christine gown which hangs in my closet always nice and clean where I am able to cherish forever. Not just because all the grandchildren were baptized in it Sammyjo, Derek, Austin and Brandi but because you made it with all your heart and it means the world too me. In closing because I know your very tired and we all know how I love too talk and good at it or as dad would always say motor-mouth I love you and thank you for helping in mold me into the wonderful mom and grandma I am today. I love you mom forever and ever all the way too the moon and back. Ps your great grandson Anthony is such a talker more then even Sammyjo so I guess when you'd joke around about me having a child some day who could out talk me you must have known god was gonna bless us with him, however your great grandson Dawson at 6 months eats like me.....

with all my love,

Jo

Ps please give grandpa & grandma a big hug for me and tell them I love them so....
