

Don C. Kahn

September 25, 1924 - September 9, 2014

Don Kahn, of Watersmeet, Michigan, died in Eagle River, Wisconsin on September 9th at the age of 89. Don was born in Wausau, Wisconsin on September 25, 1924, and was a long-time resident of Tomahawk, Wisconsin, where he worked as a manager at the Owens-Illinois paper mill until his retirement. After retirement, he moved to Watersmeet to enjoy fishing the lakes of Sylvania.

Don was a veteran of WW II, having served in the US Navy aboard a patrol craft in both the European and Pacific theatres. Don was preceded in death by his wife Essie Kahn, to whom he was married for 53 years. He is survived by a brother, Harold Kahn, a son, Jerry Kahn, two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. A private service will be held.