“When I was up in Minocqua each summer, we would stop in at Paul Bunyan to see Doug. He knew me after an absence of 40 years!. Met him in 1960 at the Cellar. What a wonderful guy he was. On August 14 of this year Judy Richardson Klade. Sally Rheaume LaFrenier and I arranged to meet him at Whitman's in Hazelhurst. He had his scrapbook of the Cellar days with him and we really enjoyed looking at it. Had lots of laughs with him. Am so glad we got to see him, one last time. What a shock to hear about his death. Peace to you, Doug, and love.

“ A wonderful bartender who, knowing my aversion to martinis and my love of olives, mixed the perfect drink for me: water with three olives. For a man of his size, he could get over the bar in a hurry when trouble broke out. He was a legend when my brother haunted the local establishments and continued to be one when I got there. One of a kind and will surely be missed.

Dick, Thought about calling you when I heard. Stopped to see Smiling Bob a few weeks back and he told me Doug was working that Sunday at Fred's so went over to see him. Glad I did, had not seen hime in a while, last time was at the Bunyan. Two weeks later he was gone. Carol and I had a nice conversation with him while there. Joe
