“ I have many fond memories of Betty when she was working with Dad at Trout Lake in the office where I would wait for the bus out of the snow and rain. She was special and I am sorry to hear of her passing. Prayers to the family for comfort. Dar

“ Don, Tom, Trevor, and Jordan: I will remember Betty's smiling face when we first came to Wildcat Lodge. Quietly and efficiently she did her job. Later, Betty became a good friend; I enjoyed our day out when Don and Kwas were fishing -- especially enjoyed our fish sandwiches at Culvers! Much peace to all of you. Donna K.

“ I remember when we would fish with Don and in the afternoon, if Betty was home we would get her to go with us. She was a good friend and always cheerful. Remember the good times.
