“ I just today, Dec. 29, 2016, saw this obituary as I searched the site for someone else's obit. I, too, remember Elsie's pincurls. We lived across the road and she and my mom, Lorraine Smith, were the best of friends. Elsie was quick with hugs, smiles and advice. She was my confirmation sponsor in 1964. Our childhood years with the Lobermeiers was precious and nfills my memories with joy. Blessings to you, Marianne and Bob. Rest in Peace, Elsie. I know she and mom are sitting at a kitchen table, drinking coffee and solving all the world's problems.

“ I pray that Aunt Elsie's days were peaceful and pain free. She lived across the field as I grew up and was always happy to see me. I remember her in pin curls, alot of work to keep her hair as she wanted. Condolences to her family as she now rests in peace again with Uncle Mel. Love and blessings.
