“ I'm Samantha her niece, and I would just like to say that her presence in my life was wonderful, she helped me see clarity in my dark times. Even though she was not my mother she filled in that void for me. Erika always used to say "What happens in the dark always comes to the light" I took that to my heart as I found out what my own mother did. I always thought she was the victim but that later changed after i found out the truth. Thank you for always being there for me you did everything you could to help impact my life and you totally did. you deserve the whole wide world your in a better place! much love, samantha
