

Ernest D. Cross

March 15, 1946 - June 22, 2013

Ernest "Kana ti" Cross passed on June 22, 2013 at home from cancer. He was surrounded by family. Born March 15, 1946 the son of Earl Cross Jr. and Betty Mae Mitchell.

Preceded in death by his parents, sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles, and son. Ernie was a Lac du Flambeau tribal member, hunter, fisher and decoy carver. He is survived by his wife, Jolene Cross, his children, his grandchildren, his great-grandchildren, brothers, and sisters. Ernie loved playing bingo and going to the casino.

He was a man of many hats and loved to help other people when they needed help. He served on the Lac du Flambeau Fire Department for 10 years. His wake will be on Tuesday, June 25, at the Multi-Purpose Building and funeral will be on Wednesday, June 26, also at the Multi-Purpose Building. In lieu of flowers, the family would request that you make a donation to the American Cancer Society. Burial will be at Memorial Cemetery.

Cemetery Details

Memorial Cemetery

Lac du Flambeau, WI

Tribute Wall

TR

“ Thank you dad for everything you have given to me.. I love you and will miss you greatly.

Theresa Rauworth - June 29, 2013 at 08:42 AM

CC

“ Rest in Peace Cousin Ernie, many thoughts & prayers to my family. Always will think of the hunting times and the lessons you have passed down to us younger generation. Love ya! Say hi to momma for me :)

Christine Cross - June 26, 2013 at 07:52 AM

CC

“ Christine Cross lit a candle in memory of Ernest D. Cross

Christine Cross - June 26, 2013 at 07:48 AM