“ I will always remember what a huge man Fritz Forrer was! Huge in stature, heart, spirit, generosity, fun, concern, and family! Each time I saw Fritz over the 25 years (that I have known him and the entire family) he made me smile and my heart leap. He loved people and was always genuinely interested in what my family was doing. The Forrer clan has been an integral part of our family story. Ann and I have been close friends since our early 20s. Our families have grown and changed and the heart of the Forrer family has always been Fritz. May his larger than life energy stay in all of our hearts for many more years to come. To you, Fritz Forrer...I toast a full and happy life and and even happier one in heaven with our Lord.

“ My deepest condolences.
Fritz was a truly wonderful neighbor and friend. The community projects we worked on together here in Naples introduced me to a man who was tireless in his commitment, thoughtful and informed in his recommendations, and always a pleasure to spend time with.
I will miss him. I know we all will.

“ In my thirty plus years working with Fritz at Forrers I felt he was more of a friend than an employer. I also looked forward to my nearly annual visits to see Fritz and Nancy at their summer home on Trout Lake. I will miss these visits greatly. To Nancy and all the family we extend our deepest condolences. Jim & Carol Brown
