

Gail Buehler

June 3, 1934 - February 24, 2011

Gail (Hansen) Buehler, age 76, of Arbor Vitae, passed away on Thursday, February 24, 2011 at Howard Young Medical Center in Woodruff. She was born on June 3, 1934 in Glen Ellyn, Illinois, the daughter of Trygve and Anna (Idsoe) Hansen. She married Carl Buehler III of Palatine, Illinois on August 8, 1967. Gail graduated from The University of Colorado with an undergraduate degree in Education and Purdue University with a Master of Science in Education. She taught school in Glen Ellyn and Wheaton Illinois for a number of years. She was a long time resident of Palatine, Illinois and her beloved home on Trout Lake in Arbor Vitae, Wisconsin. Gail is survived by her sons Carl "Tuffy" Buehler IV, Martin (Colleen) Buehler and Jay (Catherine) Buehler and her nephews Eric (Cindy) Lamb and Ajay (Jordan) Lamb; six grandchildren and five grandnieces and grandnephews. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Carl Buehler III, and her sister Helen Ann (Hansen) Lamb. Memorial services will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

JS

“ I have nothing but very fond memories of Gail and her Family. She will be missed by all whose lives she touched throughout her lifetime.

Jack Stringe

Jack Stringe - March 22, 2013 at 11:53 AM