

George W Grant Jr.

August 24, 2017

George Washington Grant Jr., 53, of Bemidji, MN passed away on Thursday August 24, 2017 at St. Clares Hospital in Weston, WI. He was born in Chicago, Illinois on January 10, 1964 to George Washington Grant and Dorothy M. (nee Sunn) Grant. George "Hollywood" "Jorge" Grant Jr. grew up in the Uptown neighborhood of Chicago and let everybody know that fact. Growing up, he was known for his Hollywood basketball moves and a loud personality on and off the court. George traveled where the wind blew him from Chicago to California and back home again. Wherever he traveled, he found family, especially throughout Wisconsin and the Leech Lake Reservation. George believed in self employment and was an entrepreneur. Jack of all trades and master of none. He could sell water to a shark. George hustled every day of his life. George loved his family especially his children and boasted about each one. George was a big sports fan and loved his Chicago teams, the Bears, the Cubs, the Bulls and the Blackhawks. His life was complete when he celebrated the Chicago Cubs winning the World Series in 2016. Survivors include his wife Karen, eight children, Lola Wakatani, Jessica Vickery, Lucas Grant, Wakesay Doxtator, Raymond F. Wildcat, Dorothy Mae Grant, Riley Mellado and George Grant Mellado; seven grandchildren, three brothers, Phillip Starr Sr, Billy Starr and John Grant; three sisters, Norma Rivers, Anna Starr and Glenda Grant and three brothers from another mother, Charlie Isham, Donnie Harrison and Gary O'Shea. He was preceded in death by his parents, a grandson Raymond F. Wildcat Jr; and two brothers Mike Grant and Charles D. Rivers. Traditional Native American Services will be held from Sunday August 27 to Monday August 28, 2017 at the Multi Purpose Building in Lac du Flambeau. Burial will be on Tuesday August 29, at 1 PM in the Graceland Cemetery in Chicago. Bolger Funeral and Cremation services is assisting the family. Visit www.bolgerfuneral.com

“ I'll see you again my brother. You were the one. The one who was always there when I needed a brother the most. I know I have other brothers, but sometimes, one just sticks out of the bunch, and you were him. I know in my heart that you are o.k. now. Its just something I feel. Love, love, love you. Continue your journey, George. You watch out for us, but never worry, anymore. 💕💕💕
