

George Knorr

December 22, 1939 - October 27, 2011

George Knorr, 71, of Woodruff, passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 27th at his residence. He was born December 22, 1939, in Antigo, Wisconsin. He is survived by his dear wife of 49 years of marriage, Carol. He is also survived by his children, Susan Knorr Rodriguez, Greg (Susan) Knorr, and Catherine (Dan) O'Brien; grandchildren, Dylan, Coral, Emma, Maddie, and Keely; his brothers, Dave (Sally) Knorr and Jim (Cindee) Porter; his mother, Ruth Brunni, along with many other relatives and friends.

George served in the Marine Corps from 1957 - 1960. He worked in the sheet metal trade for 36 years. After retirement, George moved from Greenfield, Wisconsin, to summer in Woodruff and winter in Wildwood, Florida. This let him enjoy the best of both worlds for fishing and golf. He was also an avid reader and never missed his morning bike ride.

Services will be held at Shepherd of the Lakes Lutheran Church in Sayner, Wisconsin on Saturday, November 5th at 11:00 AM. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Seasons of Life Hospice House in Woodruff.

“ I am deeply saddened by the passing of my friend George. George was always eager to help anyone, in any way he can. I will always envision him riding his bike every morning, with a hat on his head and a cup of coffee in his hand. He will be truly missed by so many people.
