

Georgia L. Thompson

June 15, 1947 - May 21, 2020

Georgia Lee Thompson (Queton), 72, Lac du Flambeau, Wisconsin, passed peacefully on Thursday, May 21, 2020 after a long stay at Avanti Rehabilitation and Health Center in Minocqua.

Georgia was born on June 15, 1947, the eldest child of parents, George Kelly Thompson, Jr. and Virginia "Chickie" (Catfish) Thompson, both members of the Lac du Flambeau Band of Chippewa Indians. Georgia now joins her parents and loved ones who preceded her to the Spirit World, including George Queton and Jerome Pewenofkit, and siblings: Barbara (Thompson) Miguel, Michael Thompson, Daniel Thompson, Beverly (Thompson) Osborne, Thomas Thompson, Robert Thompson, Richard Thompson, Marjorie Thompson, and nieces, Margret "Maggie" Thompson and Marisa Thompson. Georgia loved to travel, visit at family get-togethers, and play bingo. Georgia worked as a caretaker for much of her life and showered her loved ones with gifts on their birthdays and holidays. For much of her life, Georgia lived with her family and loved ones in Oklahoma whom she missed dearly.

Georgia is survived by sisters: Marilyn (Thompson) Miller and Heidi Haley, brother, Edward Thompson (Wheeling, IL), and sister-in-law, Noreen Queton Morgan. She is further survived by many nieces and nephews, extended relatives, bingo buddies, and friends in her homeland, the Lac du Flambeau Indian reservation, as well as in the homeland of her beloveds in Anadarko and Lawton, Oklahoma.

Bolger Funeral Home is assisting with final arrangements. A memorial gathering will be planned for a later date in Lac du Flambeau, with final interment in Anadarko, Oklahoma.

The family extends appreciation to the staff of Bolger's, Avanti, Ascension Hospice, Fr. Joseph at St. Anthony's church, and the Lac du Flambeau tribe. Heartfelt thanks to Nikki Main, Julie Deverney, Sheila LeSieur, Laura Stoffel, Dr. Steve Miskiewicz, and Valda Prentiss Jessepe. Your kindness will always be remembered.
