“ It is with a heavy heart that I'm writing this tribute. One thing I loved was Gerry's laugh. Gerry had a sense of humor that I wish I could have experienced in his earlier years. I enjoyed assisting Gerry with his real estate goals over the last 7 years. We had some ups and downs, but I considered him my friend through it all. Gerry, I will crack open a bag of old fashioned lemon drops in your honor. I'll think of you often and will miss you.

Our condolences to his family. I have known Jerry, for many years, so have a lot of memories. He, deep down was a very kindhearted man. He had a lot of struggles in his last years, therefore, as he finally can rest in peace. Tell, Norm, I said "hi", will miss our chitchats!
