Geraldine L. Brown

May 19, 1928 - January 2, 2016

Early one beautiful winter morning, Geraldine Louise Brown decided her work here was done. On January 2, 2016, she departed peacefully at her home, on her own terms, to be with her husband, George W. Brown, Jr., and other family members and friends who preceded her. She made a new list of 'to-do's that will undoubtedly include feeding birds, gardening, dancing, and, of course, laughing. Geraldine enjoyed life on many levels as evidenced by the many funny stories of her time spent with her fellow employees at Simpson's Electric Plant and dancing in fancy dresses at her favorite spot, 'The Roof,' in Milwaukee. What stories she withheld could only be imagined by looking at the constant twinkle in her eye.

She left behind daughters, Georgine P. Brown and Geraldine 'Weeders' Brown; son, John (Tammy) Brown; and canine companions, Otis and Billy-Bob. She also says 'see you later' to sisters, Jeanne (Leonard) Brown and Helen (Albert) Johnson; brothers, David (Darlene) Poupart and Paul (Crystal) Poupart, and many nieces, nephews and dear friends. Others who were also blessed to be a part of her family include Granddaughter, Amanda Christensen and Grandsons Joshua Brown, George (Gina) Brown III, Wallace Christensen, Jr., and four Great Grandchildren, Chelsea, Esaube, Kylie and Hannah.

Services will be held at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Lac du Flambeau on January 6, 2016. A church viewing will begin at 9:00 a.m., with the service to follow at 11:00 a.m. A luncheon will be held after the mass. Flowers can be sent to St. Anthony's Church.
