“ I'm Spending Christmas with Jesus This Year

I see the countless Christmas trees around the world below, with tiny lights, like heaven's stars reflecting the snow.

The sight is so spectacular, please wipe away that tear. For I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs that people hold so dear, but the sounds of music can't compare with the Christmas choir up here.

For I have no words to tell you the joy their voices bring for it's beyond description, to hear the angels sing.

I know how much you miss me, but please remember dear that I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

I can't tell you all the splendor or the peace inside this place can you just imagine Christmas with the Savior face to face?

I'll ask him to light your spirit as I tell him of your love so then pray for one another as you lift your eyes above.

So please let your hearts be joyful and let your spirits sing for I am spending Christmas in heaven and I am walking with the King!

Rest in Peace Irene~Love Susan

You lived such a good life, leaving three beautiful, hard-working sons who love you dearly and will miss your closeness. You were an amazing woman. Thank you for Chris, my best friend.

“ *Well Irene.....this is your sister, Jean, and thinking back on our childhood and having a good Mom and Dad. The one word which describes you is....COMPASSIONATE !
I remember when Mom, Lyyli Neuvonen Cheney, was in bed and she had a few more days to live....you came from Wisconsin and entered her bedroom and kissed her hands. Was Mom ever glad to see you! I am sure you have earned your angel wings!*

“ So sorry to hear of your mom's passing, but comforted knowing that she is on to better things. We appreciated the good neighbor she was and we'll miss hearing her laughter and friendly greetings. The one memory that sticks in my mind is of her in her apron and feeding the ducks while waiting for the family to gather for dinner. She truly enjoyed her years in the north woods. We were happy to hear that her family will remain as our neighbors. Please accept my family's condolences to your family, especially during this Christmas season, the season of hope.

“ We have have such good memories of Irene from the years she welcomed us into her home for our summer vacation. We were always greeted with a smile. Our kids loved to feed the ducks with her. She shared fresh blueberries from her garden. She used to come to the campfires in the evening and we'd talk. She loved to see us enjoying ourselves in the lake. We treasure those happy memories!

“ Irene was my cousin and also my friend. We were the same age and had many happy times together growing up in the little town of Phillipston, MA. Even when we were older and lived far apart, we still kept in touch. I will miss our phone calls, but know that she is at peace now with no pain. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of her family.
