“ I was fortunate enough to get to spend a little special time with Aunt Pat and Uncle Jim over the course of the last year of which I will always be extremely grateful for. I so enjoyed the shared memories and stories of family and friends that Uncle Jim always had an never ending supply of! I will miss him dearly. Hugs to Aunt Pat. Love, Laurie

“ Uncle Jimmy and Aunt Pat came to live in Colorado for several years. We spent many holidays and enjoyed so many wonderful meals together. Jimmy loved to cook, bake and do handy man repairs around the house etc. He shot his first bull elk on the ranch with my husband Alan....hence, Uncle Jimmy started the tradition of a Jager Shot after such a feat! It is a tradition now to this day during elk season! A funny/scary moment with Uncle Jim was when he was putting a dishwasher in at our place. He was wiring everything in and laying on the floor doing something under the washer. Next thing you know his body makes a huge jolt/jerk. He sits up and says "guess I forgot to turn off the power"....he shocked himself so bad I was worried about his pace maker. He chuckled and laughed over it to the point he almost couldn't catch his breath. It gave me such a scare!! Uncle Jimmy was a man always willing to help with anything. Words of advice that I cherished. The many family stories he told. If only I could retain them as he did. LOVED to listen to him and it never got old. His door was always open and he wanted nothing more than for family/friends to come visit them. My heart is heavy with sorrow at the loss of our dear Uncle Jimmy. I choose to picture the great reunion he is having in heaven with all of our loved ones who went before. My condolences to everyone in the family and especially to dear Aunt Pat. I can see the twinkle in his eye as he winks and says "you betchya"..... Love, Margy
