“ My heart broke to read of Jan’s passing. She was such a kind person; full of vitality and so positive. I especially recall her engaging smile and those blue eyes. I met her in 1974 (maybe 1975) when she joined Arthur Andersen & Co. in Dallas. We were together on several audit engagements. I always enjoyed being in her presence. When I left AA & Co., I lost contact with her ... but I never forgot her as I would reminisce with friends about past times. So, it’s been over 30 years since I last saw her and how I miss her. Belated condolences to her family and friends.

“ I have only recently learned of the Jan's passing - I am still in disbelief and shock - We met in the Fall, 1969 when Jan walked in to Petries Sport Shop on State St, Madison where I worked part time - Jan was looking for a leotard for Freshmen Phys Ed class, a required course. She could have been a UW cheerleader...she was gorgeous; 5'3", great figure, beautiful smile, long blond hair (brown, silver streaks...multicolored per Jan), the bluest eyes! - We spent an evening at the Madison Workmens Club drinking beer and talking - We have been in contact ever since; Dallas, NYC, Boston, Madison, Woodruff - For me, and perhaps for Jan, trying to figure out how we could make our connection work full time - Sadly, we never could - And with her move to Woodruff, WI in 2004 to be close to family, we saw each other less, and only spoke occasionally - Recently, discovering that her phone #s were not working I thought she had finally found someone good enough to marry - I only wish that was true - A beautiful, gentle woman, a wonderful intellect, a scholar whose undergrad students found it hard to concentrate in class because she was a beauty with brains.

“Janice was such a beautiful soul. She was a Hall Monitor at Lincoln Jr High and I roamed the Halls the same hour as an AV guy. I loved joking around with her and she tolerated me even while she was seriously trying to get school work done. Not an ounce of self centeredness. I am sure nothing changed that over the years. Sadly gone to soon.

“Janice was a high school classmate and friend at the time. She was a wonderful person, very active and well liked in our Class of 500 students at Beloit Memorial High School in 1969. Janice was a beautiful young lady, and a very nice person. She was a cheerleader and was always full of pep and excitement. We all loved going to the Pop House and dancing and enjoying friendships. She is sadly missed by many from our class. Her memory of fun time, lots of spirit and kindness will always be remembered. Janice was a class act. God bless her soul.
