“Cousin, although we did not share many memories you were always in my mind and heart. I will never forget the time you came to Long Beach to visit us after so many years away from us. We went to see the movie Dumb and Dumber it was so much fun. It was Christmas day, after the movie we were looking for a place to have lunch everything but Arby's was closed. I remember it was a cold winter day, I also remember that it was so cold that day we southern Cali people were freezing and you and cousin Mario were making fun of us. I remember Mario said “this is your winter; this weather is like our summer in Wisconsin.” Till this day every single time I see an Arby's I think of you cousin. Cousins I love you with all my heart, although we were so far apart and did not speak much you were always in my heart. You will forever be in my heart, now you are reunited with your father Tio Manny you both went at such a young age. I love you so much...May you now rest in peace with your Papi. Jason Rodriguez with love cousin Claudia Rodriguez
