

Jean C. Sharp

November 10, 1924 - March 12, 2018

Jean “Jeanne” C. Sharp, age 93, of Lac du Flambeau passed away on March 12, 2018 at Aster Assisted Living in Cottage Grove, WI. She was born on November 10, 1924 in Port Washington, WI, the daughter of Joseph and Isabelle (nee Johannes) Hollrith.

Jean graduated from Grafton High School and attended Marquette University’s Business classes. She and her husband, Don, were married in 1946 and were married for 67 years. They spent 27 years in Sheboygan before moving Up North and also resided in Fountain Hills, AZ for many years during the winter months. Jean was a 50 year plus member of St. Anthony’s Catholic Church in Lac du Flambeau and especially active in the Women’s Club. In 2017, St. Anthony’s Women’s Club established a college scholarship in her name, honoring her legacy.

She was also a lifetime member of the Howard Young Medical Auxiliary and the Elks Club. She enjoyed arts and craft fairs, knitting, reading, card games, entertaining and cooking. She delighted in her family, especially the grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Anyone who knew Jean, knew that she lived an active life guided by her faith, her love of family and friends, and serving her church and community. Her positive attitude, ready smile and generosity will be missed. Her zest for life was an inspiration for all who knew her.

Jean was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Don in 2013. She is survived by her children, Sherry (David) Hitztaler of Highlands Ranch, CO; Michael S. Sharp of Mableton, GA and David (Julie) Sharp of Madison, WI; four grandchildren Stephanie Hitztaler (Jani Onninen), Elizabeth (Josh) Hitztaler Stone, Alex and Will Sharp and four great grandchildren soon to be five.

A Memorial Mass will be held at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Lac du Flambeau on June 27, 2018 at 11 A.M.; with light refreshments after in the church hall. Interment will be at St. Joseph's Cemetery in Grafton, WI. on June 25, 2018 at 1:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, please consider the Women's Club of St. Anthony Catholic Church.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out Aunt "Jeannie's" family. Aunt Jeannie always had a big smile and generous laugh for all. When I think of Aunt Jeannie, I remember the knitted booties that we received that kept our feet warm during the winter.

While our family mourns the loss of Aunt Jeannie, we know that she, her brothers and parents are back together again.

God Bless.
