“ Thinking of Jean certainly brings back wonderful memories. I fished and hunted birds with Bill for many years. Jean always made a batch of her famous cookies to send along with us. Once we were all fishing together and after several hours of not catching much, Jean said to Bill "You always take us to where there are no fish!" Then broke out a bottle of wine AND got out glass stemware! Lots of good memories. Our prayers and wishes are with the whole family at these trying times. Take heart that she has had a full life and is now with the Lord.
