

Jean A. Stelmack

June 11, 1941 - May 5, 2024

Jean A. Stelmack of Copper Harbor, Michigan. Born June 11, 1941, in Chicago, the daughter of Roy and Catherine (nee Jones) Buchanan, peacefully died Sunday, May 5, 2024, at Marshfield Medical Center in Minocqua, Wisconsin surrounded by her family.

Jean grew up in Chicago but her heart was in Copper Harbor. In 2008, she was able to build her dream home on pebbly beach, overlooking Lake Superior. She made the move to live in her dream home full time in 2023.

Survivors include her children, Tom (Nancy) Stelmack of Minocqua, Wis. and Sheri Stelmack of Mount Prospect, Ill.; her grandchildren, Ashley (Devin) Roach and Samantha Stelmack; her sister Joyce (Walter) Walczewski of St. Joseph, Ill.; her sister Bonnie Stelmack; and her eleven nieces and nephews. Jean was preceded in death by her parents; and her husband, James J. Stelmack.

Jean's extended family went much further than blood. She was diligent in keeping close contact with numerous friends, including friends from childhood.

Details of a future Celebration of Life will be forthcoming and followed by a private burial. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be given to the The Nature Conservancy <https://www.nature.org/en-us/>

“ We only dealt with Jean in mid-90s when we relocated back to Chicago from Denver. She did a great job finding houses to visit resulting in moving into Naperville. My sister Janet Griesenauer was a long-time good friend of her who marveled at Jean's resiliency through many physical travails. R.I.P., Jean! Jim Powell
