

Jill Pockat

October 5, 1955 - January 15, 2012

Truly each one of us has an ending on this earth and Jill Pockat, a long-time resident of the Minocqua area, passed away in the arms of her guardian at the age of 56 on January 15, 2012 at St. Mary's Hospital in Madison, Wisconsin.

Ms. Pockat was one in six children and was born on the 5th of October, 1955 in Watseka, Illinois to the late Evelyn and Jesse Hartlep, Sr. For the past two years, she has fought several health battles courageously. During the last few months that she spent with us, she touched our lives and soul and her presence in our lives is a gift we will always remember.

Jill loved sewing, reading, outdoor activities and had a wonderful smile that could light up a room and she maintained her trademark sense of humor all the way to the end.

Jill will forever be remembered by her beloved children: Corey, Scott, Michael Jr. and Terry Pockat and one treasured grandchild, loving sisters, Gail Neitzke and Joyce Steiner and her caring brothers Mark, Jesse and Chris Hartlep along with countless other family and friends whom were blessed to know her.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Evelyn and Jesse Hartlep, Sr. and daughter, Tammy Pockat.

Friends and family are invited to Bolger Funeral Home in Woodruff, Wisconsin on Monday, January 23, 2012 to attend a 2:00 p.m. gathering and a memorial service that will be held at 3:00 p.m.

Jill thanks you for the love that you have shown, but now it is time that she traveled alone, but when you come her way alone, she will greet you with a smile and a welcome home.

The family request that memorials be given to the family.
