“ I was unaware Joan passed away until just recently and was sadden to hear this! I lost touch with her the last five years or so but I never forgot her and thought of her often! I grew up by her and we were neighbors. I remember all the rummage sales she had. She was the kindest and nicest person! I would visit her and Joe very often. Either by there campfire or inside the house sitting on her couch. She always had something fresh baked and would always offer me something. I would have rummage sales myself and she would always visit me. Joe even built me a table for my rummage sales. I would be so happy to see them after a long winter when they returned from Florida! I started my television broadcasting career at channel 12 in Rhinelander and they would always watch. I remember the countless times they came into the Shamrock Bar & Restaurant and had a fish fry. May Joan rest in peace! She is now with the angels and with Joe!
