“ JACK

Fond memories of an honest, hardworking, adventurous, very giving man. I will miss Jacks sense of humor, interesting stories, and caring ways.

Thankfully memories last forever. Carol (Jacks sister) prepared a big spread for all of us this past Easter. Although weaker, it was so much fun to watch Jack enjoy himself with family & friends in Madison, Stoughton, Middleton & Cross Plains. We were all richly blessed by his presence & happiness.

Jack obviously cheered for the Badgers, Brewers, & Packers. I on the other hand cheer for Nebraska, Iowa, & then Wisconsin. I WILL miss Jacks harassing phone calls when Wisconsin would take out my Hawkeyes or Cornhuskers. As the last seconds were ticking off, Jack would get that big crooked smile across his face, start rubbing his hands together (like Grandpa Bernie), & start dialing my phone number. “Rah, rah, Bucky Badger this, Bucky Badger that!! When am I coming back to a winning team”.

I asked Jack for some wisdom last March. He looked at me as if saying why are you asking me, but did state work hard, be honest, stay out of debt, retire early, & don't forget to play. Well done Jack.

As always “Go Big Red”, but for now I will refer to your beloved Badgers!!

You're forever in our hearts. Rest in peace Uncle Jack.

“ We will always cherish our time with Jack at the Turtle Flambeau Flowage. For more than twenty years he was a friend, a great storyteller, a kind and caring person, who loved the flowage and made all the people who vacationed there appreciate the majesty of the water. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Tom and Lisa Seifert, Helen Seifert, and Jack Seifert
