“ My sympathy to you and your family, Lynne, on the passing of your dad. He and my brother, Orv (who passed away two years ago) were dear friends since attending Rufus King High School together in Milwaukee -- and you are to be commended and thanked for continuing their friendship by driving your dad to Milwaukee for yearly get-togethers. I know they'll be sharing lots of time and stories together now! Sincerely, Ron Treptow, August 5, 2020, rftrep tow@gmail.com

“ I am so very sad to hear of Ken's passing. He and June were among my first friends at the Community Church when I first began attending 15 years ago. He was, indeed, a lot of fun with a great sense of humor, More than that, a dear friend to this day for which I am ever grateful. God bless you, Ken, until we are all together again, Linda Sterba

“ Good friend.....good man! I remember a couple excursions to Lone Pine Lake in quest of the mighty bluegill. Learned tricks from the old Master. RIP old friend.

Thanks, Randi. He was an easy man to love and I'm so thankful to have had him for a dad. No more COVID visitation restrictions - we're both free from that now! I think that was the toughest!!

“ Ken was one of the kindest and most gentle human beings one could ever encounter. He was one of those individuals who saw the best in everyone. With a marvelous sense of humor, he welcomed everyone into his tent. He so represented the best of what faith is all about. I am truly a better human being for knowing Ken.

That is an amazing statement about any human being. I'm so glad you and my dad were friends. I know he had many and was a true friend to his friends. He was as good a dad as that, too. Thanks for your kind words! ~ Lynne
