“ I miss Louie. He had a pleasant disposition. A person that was very likeable. I remember him as being kind, considerate and easy to talk to. Not only that but he could bake a great bluebeery pie.

“ I remember always seeing Louie when grandpa(Darrell from IBM) would take me up to the cabin. I always enjoyed visiting him and letting him know how everyone is doing. I will miss him very much.

“ Louis was always a positive person and accepted people for who they were without judgement. Some of my best memories as a kid are from visiting Rainee and Louis at the "cottage" on Buckskin Lake-fishing, 1st time using a sauna, exploring the northwoods, just hanging out, etc. We will miss him!
