

Mae N. Adkison

May 19, 1934 - February 17, 2019

Mae Neta Adkison (Patterson)

On Sunday, February 17, 2019 Mae peacefully said goodbye with family at her side. She was born Mae Neta Lee on May 19, 1934 in Bay County, Florida. Northern Wisconsin became her home where she raised her 5 children while working part time. She was the hostess at Mama's Supper Club for many years. After moving back to Florida for a time, Mae returned to Minocqua where she was a cashier at Save More Marketplace. She loved to interact with the customers and built friendships that have stayed with her to this day. People loved her smile and sense of humor. In her later years, as her health declined, she was extremely grateful for the care given to her from her son in law, Mark Siech. Mark was her go to person. Whatever she needed he was there. Mae is preceded in death by father, C.C. Lee; mother, Mary Kemp; sister, Lottie and brother, Harold. She is survived by one sister, Wilma and by her children, Tom Patterson of Florida, Norma (Scott) Semling of Eagle River, Karen Parcher of Minocqua, Pam (Mark) Siech of Minocqua and Michael Patterson of Florida; grandchildren, Scott Semling Jr., Eric Semling, Jason Parcher, Grey Siech and Ali Siech and great grandchildren, Ali, Ashlynn and Kendel Semling of Merrill.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Mae's Birthday, May 19th.

“ Mae was one of the sweetest people I know. She was so friendly to me each and every time I saw her. Her smile itself was heartwarming. I thought of her often remembering her selflessness & beauty whenever we talked. She will be forever in our hearts. Our deepest feelings of love to the family.
