“ Mom would always call and ask "Did you just call me?" I'd say no, but then we'd talk for an hour any way. Today I heard her voice "Did you just call me?" and with tears in my eyes I said "Yes Mom. I called you." I will always be calling for you in my heart.

“Lori and Shawn, how very sorry I am to hear of your loss...a loss to so many who knew & loved Mary Anne; you could not help but love her to know her. Whenever I think of her--I remember that warm, beautiful smile and laughing, always. And such a quick wit, smart as a whip! The times I spent with your family are some of my best memories of childhood...your mom & dad always made me & my sister feel welcome. And, when we all got together with the Olsen siblings--what a party, so many gifted & expressive people who just lit up the room and filled it with fun. These good memories help to ease the pain, but still the sorrow overweighs...I'm just so very sad about everything you are going through. Please accept my sincere condolences, and know I am with you in thought. Sending my love and prayers, Cousin Michelle
