“ Mary's heart was bigger than Texas & Alaska combined! She never met a stranger; lovingly raised and trained many litters of pups; gave unselfishly of her talents, time and love - always ready to welcome orphans (adults or children) into her world. She always saw the best in everyone. Mary overcame numerous health challenges determined to prove her doctors wrong when they didn't give her much of a chance. Her determined sweet spirit, courage and zest for life was an inspiration for all of us. She loved her family & friends and I'm so glad she found Oliver to share her life. She touched my life, I was glad to call her my friend and I shall miss her. Blessings and loving sympathy to her family and host of friends. Sincerely, Sandy Hatcher (former co-worker at Masterson & Company - aka Masterson, Moreland, Sauer & Whisman, Inc. in Houston)
