“ Very sorry to read about the passing of your father, Max. Also didn't realize you had lost your mother earlier. They were both GREAT in-laws during my married time with Lee. Your dad was always eager to share his fishing stories and to take me fishing on the lake. Your mom and I got a bit loopy during our very own Brandy Alexander party night at your house on Rockway Lane while all you boys were gone hunting. I have cherished memories of them both. Sorry to hear of your loss.
